Big Money Lost Through the Decision in Undergraduate Stakes—Lady Amelia Alse Burns Up Thousands—Aste Wins Two Races With Rubric and Alwin.

Big money was lost through the disqualification of Frank Farrell's colt Arklirta in the Undergraduate Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furiongs, at Brighton Beach yesterday. Arklirta was a hot favorite, sammered down to 11 to 10, with P. J. Dwyer's Quorum going back to 2 to 1 and H. De Course Quorum going back to 2 to 1 and H. De Courcy forbes's Listless lowered to fives. W. H. Spyder's Muffins, a 30 to 1 shot, took the lead to the quarter pole, attended by Listless and eklirts. At the head of the stretch Muffins reklirts. At the head of the stretch Muffins and Arklirts drew away. Willie Knapp then put the Farrell colt under a drive and the latter bore in, crowding Muffins to the rail, after which he came on and won by three parts of a length in 1:07 2-5. Baird, who rode Muffins, hurried before the stewards with a protest of foul, with the result that Arklirts was ruled out of the money, with Muffins placed as the winner, Quorum second and Listless third.

protest of foul, with the result that Arguits was ruled out of the money, with Mumins placed as the winner, Quorum second and Listless third.

The smart betters began the day with an upset that jarred them to the heels. They loaded the money on Lady Amelia, top weight in the handicap at six furiongs, sending her to the post an even money favorite, Lady Amelia did her best, but after showing the way for half a mile she weakened and Miller passed her with the lightly weighted Aeronaut, a 15 to 1 shot, who won in a drive by a length and a half. Lady Amelia was under pressure to beat Teacress, 4 to 1, half a length for the place, with the latter a head before Ascension. Ancestor was outrun from the start. The time was 1:13 2-5.

A remarkable feature of the steeplechase was that Nitrate, the favorite, won, although he went up in the betting to 11 to 5 and several of the best known layers laid against him. He made all the running and galloped home five lengths to the good in 4:24. Dick Roberts, 7to 1, had a mortgage on the place, with ffteen lengths over Paulaker, 4 to 1. Neponset burned up a bale of money, as he was backed down to 16 to 5.

Tony Aste, the Bootblack King, won two races, with Rubric and Alwin, betting liberally on each. Rubric, 4 to 1, won the third event, at a mile and a sixteenth, Willie Knapp taking him to the front at the three-quarter pole for a clever victory by a length and a half in 1:46 1-5. Jetsam, 10 to 1, who led part of the way, finished in the place, five lengths in front of Novena, another 10 to 1 shot. Ocean Tide, the favorite, blew up unexpectedly half a furlong from the wire. Alwin, at 6 to 1, made a fast pace in the handicap at a mile and an eighth and got the money by a length, with plenty in reserve. St. Bellane, 15 to 1, came to life and nailed the place from Eugenia Burch, backed down to 12 to 5, by a head. Bad News, the favorite, with 127 pounds, six furlongs, simply galloped in front all the way, Miller easing him at the end, where he had three lengths over P. J. Dwyer's Red E

Racing at Old Saugus.

Boston, Mass., July 26.—The racing at the Old Saugus track to-day was delayed somewhat by a rainstorm, and only one of three events scheduled was finished. Sundown, the favorite in the 2:18 pace, did not make much of a showing, not getting seven a place in the four heats that were raced. The 2:22 trot was badly spilt up, Great Medium being the only contender to get more than one of the five heats. Mayzetta, the favorite, took the first heat, but falled to do good work in the next four. The two unfinished races will be decided to morrow. Summary:

The team matches were called promptly at 10:30 o'clock this morning by Lieut.-Col. N. B. Thurston, Inspector-General of Rifle Practice. Nine teams were lined up for the company match and four for the carbine event. Good scores marked the progress of the 200-yard stage as the wind was steady and light and other conditions excellent. At the end of the 200-yard stage the teams stood:

FASTEST PACING HEAT OF YEAR. Locanda Steps in 2:05 at Grosse Point

-Sadie Mae Speedy. DETROIT, July 26 .- Perfect weather and track conditions brought out some great racing to-day at the Grand Circuit meeting on the Grosse Point track. the second fastest trotting heat of the year, and there was a fall for betters they will not soon forget.

With but three in it, the 2.04 pace proved to be the betting feature of the week. Pools sold with Nathan Straus, $400; King Direct, $200, and Locanda, $150, and speculation was very active. Snow took Locanda out in front. After marching to the half in 1.02 he had enough left to stand off Nathan Straus in the stretch and win by half a length in 2.05. In the second mile they all loafed to the three-quarter pole and set sail, but Locanda came the last quarter in 0.29% and again beat Nathan Straus. Nathan Straus set the pace in the third heat and led to the stretch, where Locanda passed him and in turn was beaten by King Direct, Geers up, in a great finish.

Sadle Mac showed wonderful speed and quality in the 2.12 trot. She was not hurried a particle in the first mile in 2.08%, which chopped her record five seconds, and the rest was a buggy ride.

Maud Keswick won the first and third heats of the 2.18 pace and James Bulter's Bolivar, the second. Maud Keswick was an unheard of Canadian mare until she drove Walter Direct out at Windsor. The summaries:

PHIDIAS CARRIES THIS BIG CREDMOOR, July 26 -The veteran shots of WAGER AT PROHIBITIVE ODDS. Dave Johnson Loses $12,000 on Arklirta With All of the Other Big Operators Following Suit-Brown Takes Rubric

From Aste-Keene's Yearlings Here. There have been many big bets on prohibitive favorites, with the idea of picking up what is known on the racetrack as "sure money," but all records were broken yester-day at Brighton Beach when Phidias opened day at Brighton Beach when Phidias opened a 1 to 3 favorite in the last race. Several of the clubhouse commissioners got busy in the ring immediately with a wager of leviathan proportions. It amounted to $40,000, according to the ring sharps, and the clubhouse agents went from book to book offering each layer as much as he would take. Some accepted $5,000, others took $2,000 and $1,000, while nearly all of the others were ready to take a chance with $500. All of the immense commission was placed and every book in the ring lost on the result. Joe Rose and Sol Lichtenstein each bet heavily on this favorite, Rose placing $5,000 and Sol $2,000. Phidias closed at 1 to $ just as they were off. Max Blumenthal took Hawtherne a place. Max Blumenthal took Hawthorne a place, while Jim Davey and Morris Stack had big place wagers on Veronese.

It was a day of heavy betting all around. It was a day of heavy betting all around. The books had all they could attend to and won handsomely on the general result. Lady Amelia was practically backed off the boards in the first race, but a big delay at the post probably helped to kill her chances because of the burden that she carried. Jesses Lewisohn, Joe Rose and Frank Tyler each wagered $3,000 on Lady Amelia, with Joe Guthorn hetting $2,500, Charles Head Smith $2,008 and J. Howard Sam Deimel and other smart fellows Joe Rose and Frank Tyler each wagered $3,000 on Lady Amelia, with Joe Guthorn hetting $2,500. Charles Head Smith $2,000 and J. Howard, Sam Deimel and other smart fellows aboard. George Wheelook lost $3,000 on Teaccress, who was played by Charley Heney, R. Angarola and Jim Davey. Fred Johnson split $500 on Aeronaut at 15 and 6. Jack McDonald had a big bet on Ancestor, who was also supported by Eddie Burke. Charley Fox split $1,000 on Ascension, the Ben Strome mare being also supported by J. Keime. Charley Mitchell, the former pugilist, bet on Ancestor, while Robert Tucker, one of the stockholders in the Aqueduct track, won a nice bet on Aeronaut, straight and place.

"Nitrate is a dead one!" was 801 Lichtenstein's comment as he proceeded to lay against the favorite in the steeplechase, to his own chagrin. Joe Rose bet $2,000 on this winner, but got only $10.5, as he took opening betting. Yeager and Wheelook also wagered $2,500 each on Nitrate, with J. Keime placing $1,500. Ed Stutte had $500 straight, $1,000 place and $1,000 third on Dick Roberts, who ran second at 7, 5 to 2 and even, Frank Moore, Tom Costigan, Al Simona and Charley Fox went to Paulaker, with Max Blumenthal and J. Howard taking Neponset.

Frank Farrell and his friends lost heavily when Arklirts was disqualified for fouling in the Undergraduate Stakes. Dave Johnson lost $12,000. Edistute, was disqualified for fouling in the Chaergraduate Stakes. Dave Johnson Cost, $1,000. Capias was played by Eddie Burke, 1,000. Edistute, wore broad grins. They had received a tip on Muffins from W. H. Snyder and took enough 30 to 1 to win about $7,500 each. Some of the rall birds had tipe on Muffins, tod, so that there were wild yells of delight when he got the long end of the purse.

Ocean Tide, in the third race, burned up a $0,000 cubchouse commission on Quorum.

While the Arklirts money went up in smoke, Joe Goog on the second way of him. Eugenia Burch was supposed to be the goods when Wheelock, Ell Porter, Eddie McDonald, Morris Black. E. J. Callahan and oth on St. Bellane, who at 15 to 1 ran a much improved race.

When Rubric won the third race Frank Brown, trainer for Charley Fox, bid him up to $3,000 and got him. Then Aste turned around and claimed Jetsam for $2,340.

Twenty-eight yearlings bred at James R. Keene's Castleton Stud arrived at Sheepshead Bay yesterday.

Lyne's ride on P. J. Dwyer's Quorum in the Undergraduate Stakes was so weird that the critics were busy with the hammer the rest of the day.

When called before the stewards, Willie Knapp practically admitted that he had bumped Mumns with Arkilita, which clinched the determination of the officials to disqualify the Farrell colt.

MONMOUTH HORSE SHOW. Mrs. Gerken and Messrs. Jordan and Vanderbilt Win Blues.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., July 26 .- A large and fashionable gathering witnessed the open-ing of the twelfth annual exhibition of the Monmouth County Horse Show Association at Hollywood Park this afternoon. The Monmouth County Horse Show Association at Hollywood Park this afternoon. The weather was perfect and the classes well filled. In the roadsters class Harry L. Toplitz, showing Judge Boardman, lost control of the lines. Mr. Toplitz is just recovering from an automobile accident. The exertion proved too much for him. His horse, however, was got under control.

Eben. D. Jordan of Bosten carried off three blues. Mrs. John Gerken won two blues and two reds, while Mrs. R. F. Carman and R. F. Carman, Jr., each captured a blue.

The features of the day were the judging of the roadsters class and the pony running race. Alfred B. Maclay won the roadsters class handly. Mr. Jordan's three wins were the ponies in harness, with Lady Eccles, Mrs. Gerken's Doncaster Model being second and Mrs. Grosvenor's pair, Masterpiece and Honest John, third and fourth, in the high stepping class with The Baron and President, and in the final class for tandems. In the tandem class Lord Burleigh and Lord Belfast did the trick.

Mrs. Gerken's two blues were in the saddle horse class with La Contributor, and aga in in the harness horse class, when Newsboy defeated Mr. Jordan's entry, Narina, who finished second, with J. K. Branch's Mignonette third. Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt won a red and two blues for a starter, in the judging of pacers finishing first and second respectively, with Polly Prim and Enill Dress and Sweet Marie and Portia.

John K. Branch won the novice class with Miss Sharps and the Jacob Rothschild prize. Mr. Vanderbilt's Stamford Queen got the red and J. C. Thompson's Clydeville Queen the yellow. College Widow won the racing prize, closely pressed by the Locust Farm's Ruby, with J. C. Thompson's Squire third. Mrs. R. F. Carman won the Brewster prize for the best horse shown to a rumble phæton with High Art, and Mrs. H. E. Owen third with Blackie.

Master R. F. Carman's win was in the pony class, children to drive, with Checkers, Mrs. Gerken's Towthorpe Queen getting the red and Mrs. Grosvenor's Honest John the yellow. Howard Wi weather was perfect and the classes well

NEW YORKS WIN THROUGH POOR FIELDING BY REDS.

Visitors Make Things Lively in the Clesing Innings—Breeklyns Outplay the Car-dinals, Pittsburgs Triumph in Besten and Quakers Take Eleven Inning Game.

The New York Nationals won their third straight game from the Reds yesterday, and the Brooklyns defeated the Cardinals. In Boston the Pittsburgs won handly, while the Chicagos lost an eleven inning contest in Philadelphia. The results: New York, 6; Cincinnati, 5.

prodigality in bases on balls. The New Yorks were outbatted, 12 to 5, but won again because they were faster in the field and on the bases and displayed far more baseball intelligence.

In the sixth inning the Reds ran headlong into a triple play. Their, own blundering base running opened the way to the triple and the locals were clear headed enough to seize the opportunity. Barry opened the sixth with a single and went to second on Kelley's single, Beymour sent a hard ground smash to Dahlen, who made a smooth stop. He tossed the ball to Gilbert, forcing Kelley, Gilbert relayed to Bowerman in an attempt to double Seymour at first base. Gilbert's throw was wide, and Seymour was safe. Barry tried for the plate when he saw the throw go wide, but Bowerman had the ball in Bresnahan's hands in plenty of time to nail Barry at the platter. Seymour, meanwhile, had taken a lead off first, and Bresnahan's quick return to Bowerman caught Si off the bag. He started for second, Bowerman threw to Gilbert, who touched Seymour, and the three-ply play was completed.

The Reds began well. Huggins asuntered. Barry singled, then came a wild pitch, a stinger to left by Seymour and two runs. Strang's base on balls and hits by Breenahan and Mertes gave the New Yorks a run in the first.

The New Yorks scored three times in the fourth inning without a hit. Ewing's spitz ball was not under control, and Dahlen and Devlin walked. Gilbert bunted, but Huggins, who should have covered first base, as Barry was playing in for a bunt, neglected his duties entirely, and there was nobody near first when Ewing fielded Gilbert's bunt there. Consequently, Dahlen and Devlin skedsddled home and Gilbert to third. Another bizarre bungle, Ewing's high fling home of Bowerman's grounder, allowed Gilbert to score.

New York's two runs in the fifth were just as easy. Bresnahan trotted down on four balls, Mertes filed to Sebring, and Dahlen inning went from first to third on Dahlen's infield hit, as Steinfeld left third uncovered, and there was nobling but an

BROOKLYN, 6: ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 1.

Pitcher Scanlon had an assortment of curves that befuddled the Cardinals a whole lot in yesterday's game. He held them down to four singles, the Brooklyns in the meantime batting Egan of St. Louis freely. The third inning really decided the issue. In that round the Brooklyns wielded the willow so valiantly that four of them crossed the plate. Dobbe was one of the most industrious workers on the Brooklyn side. He made a two bagger and a single and one run and looked after center field well, swinging onto half a dozen vagrant fly balls. The score:
